

LEHMAN, LEE & XU

雷曼律师事务所

PRESS RELEASE

EDWARD LEHMAN GUEST FOR CCTV 9 TELEVISION SHOW – DIALOGUE ON SEXUAL HARASSMENT IN CHINA

Beijing, China – September 15, 2006 – Mr. Edward Lehman, managing director of LEHMAN, LEE & XU, will participate as a panelist for CCTV 9's Dialogue, in an episode which discusses Sexual Harassment – legal and social perspective in China on September 18, 2006 (Sunday)(7.30pm) and September 19, 2006 (Monday)(0.30am, 7.30am and 1.00pm).

It is a hot topic of late in view that there's proposal by certain quarters, especially the women rights group worldwide to exert pressure on the authorities in China to come up with a piece of law that could adequately regulate issues pertaining to sexual harassment, particularly in work place as well as often viewed as the most vulnerable group, the domestic workers who stay and live under the same roof with their employers.

Edward, the only man in a panel of 3, will be sharing his views and draw interesting comparisons from the west as well as the equality between men and women, and that men do subject to harassment too!

Dialogue has become an important show for both foreigners and Chinese, with host Yang Rui and Tian Wei and guests discussing current social and legal issues impacting China. As a result of Edward's nearly twenty years in China, Edward Lehman is a natural candidate for the show.

To learn more about the firm and its scope of legal practice group, please visit www.lehmanlaw.com.